ASHFUR POV

I was walking around then Clan and just looking at everybody and a lot them were with their mates and kits. It must be nice to have someone.

O let me introduce myself my name is Ashfur and I'm a ThunderClan cat and a warrior of the Clan and I did have my heart set on one but she didn't choose me she choice someone else and I was hurt but I don't show it when I'm with the Clan I do that when I'm alone.

But anyway after I was done looking at everybody I decided to go to the forest to a river and take a drink and then sat down and looked at my reflection and sigh.

I then heard noises in the bushes and so I stood up and turned around.

"Who's there" I then heard the noise again and then I got tackled and when I turn my head and I saw brown tom cat "who are you" I then kick him off and stand up, I then watch him as he walks around me "I'll ask you again, who are you?"

"Now why would I do that," he says, I then tackle him to the ground and I was on top of him "I didn't know you wanted some action" he then pushes me off and gets on top of me "I like to take the lead"

"Get off me" I then roll and attack him but he doughs it and attacks me and we keep fighting.

Just then I got tackled to the ground with him on top of me.

"Are we done?" he asks.

"Ok fine you win" he chuckles and gets off me "are you going to tell me your name?"

"No, I won that fight and so how about you tell me your name," he says.

"Fine, my name is Ashfur and I'm a warrior from ThunderClan"

"Well it's nice to meet you Ashfur," he says.

"Now are you going to tell me yours?" I ask.

"I will, but next time we meet, now I have to go" he then walks past me and his tail rubs on me.

When I turn my head I saw that he was gone.

I then went back to the Clan and got some prey and then went to my den and ate. After that, I went to sleep.

HAWKFROST POV

After I left him I went to my den and rested and thought about him.

"It's weird but he was kinda cute for a tom," I said in my head as I fell asleep.

HAWKFROST POV

When I wake up I stretch and then I go get some water to drink and then I went to catch pray so that I could eat. When I was done eating I heard voices and so I went to see what was going on.

When I get there I saw Ashfur and 2 other cats. The first one was a tom and he had dark brown and light brown fur and the other one was orange with a white paw and it was a female.

[image]

[image]

"Ok here's how it's going to go, we are going to split up and search for prey and then return to the Clan," the tom says.

"Yes Brambleclaw," Ashfur and the female said.

After that, they went their own way and I followed Ashfur secretly and as I did I heard him talking to himself.

"How can she choose him over me, I mean sure Brambleclaw may be the Beta, but I'm good too," Ashfur says and I saw tears.

I then came out and walked to him.

"Nothing is ever accomplished with tears" that makes him gasp and look at me.

"O it's you again" he then uses his tail to wipe the tears away "what do you want?" Ashfur says.

"That's not important" I then sit next to him "why don't you tell me what's wrong"

He sighs "there was this she-cat that I loved, but she didn't feel the same way, she had feelings for someone else and ever since then it kills me that I was rejected" I then saw tears fall again "I mean what did I do wrong," Ashfur says.

"You did nothing wrong" he looks at me "if this she-cat doesn't feel the same way that's her loss and maybe one day you'll find someone," I said as my tail rubs his back.

"You know talking about it sure made me feel better," Ashfur says "and are you going to tell me your name?"

"Well I did say I would when we met again and we have and so" I stand up and go in front of him "my name is Hawkfrost"

"It's nice to meet you" he then stands up "well I better go find some prey and head home," Ashfur says and then starts to walk away.

"Wait" he stops and looks at me.

"Yeah," Ashfur says.

"If you ever need someone to talk to just meet me at the place where we first met and I'm over there every day if you need to"

"Ok, thanks," Ashfur says and then runs away.

ASHFUR POV

After I left Hawkfrost I went hunting for some food. When I got a few prey I went back to Clan and put the prey with the rest of it and then I went to sit on a log and just relax.

After a few hours, my sister came over to me along with her mate and kits.

[image]

(here's the family picture of Dustpelt and his kits)

"Hey brother," Ferncloud says.

"Hey sis" I then look at her mate "he still treating you right?"

"Yes brother" she sighs "you have to stop being overly protective," Ferncloud says.

"I'll stop when you stop trying to set me up with a random female as a mate"

"To shay" Dustpelt then cleans his throat "o right" she then looks at me "Ashfur um could you watch the kits tonight we have to go on patrol tonight and we can't leave them alone," Ferncloud says.

"Sure sis"

"Thanks, Ashfur that means a lot," Dustpelt says.

"Well you are family and I help the family," I said.

"Thanks again bro," Ferncloud says and I nod.

After that, they left and that left me alone with their kits and so we played for a while until we got hungry and so we ate and then I put them in their parent's nest and they went to sleep.

I staid there until they returned and then I went to my nest and went to sleep.

ASHFUR POV

It has been a few days since I saw Hawkfrost and so I was heading over there to see him.

When I got to the place we met I saw that he wasn't here and so I waited. After a few minutes, I heard noises and that made me turn my head and I saw that it was him.

"Hey Hawkfrost"

"Hey Ashfur," Hawkfrost says as he sits next to me "I haven't seen you in a few days"

"Yeah sorry, I've been busy"

"It's alright, but it would be nice to see you more, I get lonely sometimes being on my own," Hawkfrost says.

"Don't you have family somewhere?" I ask.

"I do, but my sister Mothwing lives in RiverClan and I had a brother named Tadpole, but he died when he was kit," Hawkfrost says.

"O am sorry to hear that"

"That's ok," Hawkfrost says.

"If you don't mind me asking" he looks at me "why are you in ThunderClan territory and not at home?"

"Well the thing is" he stops "I can't"

"Why?"

"Because if I do you'll judge me too just like the rest of RiverClan did," Hawkfrost says.

"I swear to StarClan that I will not judge you for whatever it is"

"Well" he stops again "ok" he then takes a deep breath "I like males instead of females," Hawkfrost says.

"What does that mean?" I ask.

"Well from being a rogue I have traveled to the two-legged territory," Hawkfrost says and I gasp.

"Why would you go there, that territory is very dangerous," I said with worry.

"Can I finish now?" Hawkfrost asks. I nod "thank you, anyway like a said I like males and from what I learned from the two-legged they call it gay," Hawkfrost says.

"I see" I then think for a second "I have never heard of a male liking another male before"

"You think I'm a freak to don't you?" Hawkfrost asks.

"No" he looks at me surprised "I promised StarClan that I wouldn't judge you and I'm keeping that promise"

"You don't think I'm a freak or something after telling you this" Hawkfrost says.

"No I don't and plus I don't judge my friends on who they are," I said and he gasps "what"

"Yo-you consider me a friend" Hawkfrost says being surprised.

"Of course and besides, you're like the only one I can talk to without feeling hurt about what she did"

"I've never had a friend before and your the first cat that has not considered me a freak," Hawkfrost says.

After that, we just hung out and laughed about random stuff and just had a good time.

When it started getting dark we went our separate ways.

"Ashfur" I turn my head and it was Hawkfrost.

"What is it?" I ask.

"I just wanted to say thank you for understanding for what I am," Hawkfrost says.

"You're welcome"

What surprised me after that was the Hawkfrost licked my cheek and then left and that made me heat up in my cheeks.

"Am I weird that I liked it," I said in my head.

After that, I went back to the Clan and ate some prey and then I went to sleep.

HAWKFROST POV

After I left Ashfur I went to get me something to eat. As I ate I thought about what I did and it felt right.

Maybe Ashfur could be my mate, if only he liked me more then a friend. But being his friend is good enough for now.

When I got to my den I went to sleep.

HAWKFROST POV

It has been a few weeks since I met Ashfur and we have become really close and we just hang out and have a good time, but I'm starting to grow feelings for him.

But right now I was in my den just laying down, just then I heard noises and so I got up and got ready to attack. When I saw a cat I tackled it and when I looked down I gasp and I see that it's my sister.

[image]

"What are you doing here?" I ask being rude.

"I came looking for you," Mothwing says.

"What do you want?"

"I want you to come home," Mothwing says.

"You know I can't go back, I was banished" I then got off her.

"Yes, I know that, but I was able to get Leopardstar to change her mind," Mothwing says.

"How?" I ask.

"Well we made a deal that if you agree to stop all this I love males crap you can come home and find a female and have a family," Mothwing says.

"I can't believe you" I then look away from her "they want me to change so that I would be like everyone else" I then look at her "let's get one thing, straight sister I will not change and besides" I stop for a second "I already have a mate" she gasps.

"Who?" Mothwing asks.

"I'm not telling my mates name so that you can report it to the others that are behind the bushes" I then look that way "come out you cowards" I then saw who it was and it was Leopardstar "what are you doing here?"

[image]

"We want you to come home," Leapardstar says.

"I'll pass" I then walk away.

"Brother, don't just walk away," Mothwing says as she blocks me.

"Sister I love you and I always will, but if you get in my way I will hurt you and anyone that gets in my way" after that I left and just then I got tackled and saw that it was Leopardstar "get off me"

"Not until you come home," Leopardstar says and then something snaps in me and so I use my strength and push her off me "still strong as ever"

"I know why you really want me back, it's because I'm stronger then the others" I then attack her and claw her really bad and bite her and then walked away from her "if any of you come near me again I will kill you all with no regret" I then looked at my sister trying to help Leopardstar. And she was really bad with claw marks and bite marks and blood all over her. I then walked away into the shadows.

ASHFUR POV

I was in the Clan when I heard gasps and so I went outside and I saw it was Leopardstar and a she-cat.

"What happened?" Tigerstar asks as he ran to her.

[image]

"A rogue attacked her as we were heading here," the she-cat says.

"What's your name?" Tigerstar asks.

"My name is Mothwing," Mothwing says and he nods

"Let's get her to the medicine cat," Tigerstar says and picks her up and they headed over there.

After a few minutes, Mothwing came out and so I went to her.

"How is she doing?" she looks at me.

"She's going to be ok, thanks StarClan," Mothwing says.

"Mothwing," Tigerstar says and that made us look at him.

"Yes Tigerstar," Mothwing says.

"Do you know who the rogue is?" Tigerstar asks.

"Yes" she sighs sadly "it's my brother"

"What's your brother's name?" Tigerstar asks.

"Hawkfrost," Mothwing says and I gasp.

"Excuse me" I then walk away and when I was far away I ran to find Hawkfrost.

After a few minutes, I saw him looking at his reflection.

"Hawkfrost" he looks at me.

"Ashfur," Hawkfrost says.

"What did you do?"

"What are you talking about?" Hawkfrost asks.

"I'm talking about Leopardstar" he gasps with his eyes wide open.

"What about her?" Hawkfrost asks.

"She at my Clan right now talking to Tigerstar and she told him who you were and now they will be looking for you" I then begin to start pacing back and forth "why did you attack a leader?"

He sighs "she attacked me first by holding me down and her and my sister want me to come home and they want me to stop being who I am," Hawkfrost says "when she forced it on me I snapped and hurt her and I was close to killing her"

"So what now?"

"I have to leave and wait until it calms down" I gasp with sadness "but there something I want to do first" he then tackles me to the ground and I land on my back and him on top of me "I love you Ashfur" he then kissed me "I will come back for you" he then leaves as he runs.

"He loves me," I said and then I started crying "I love you too"

HAWKFROST POV

After I left Ashfur I had tears running down my face as I ran away.

But that has been weeks since then and I was in some part of the forest that was far away from any Clan territory, this part of the forest was huge and there was plenty of things to hunt for.

After I marked this territory as mine I explored it and I found a lot of places for dens to go and as I explored it I tripped going down the hill and then I banged into a giant rock.

"Ok that hurt," I said as I stood up and then I saw blood on my paw and so I rubbed it on the rock and then I saw it glow and then I saw a ghost cat.

"What is your wish?" the ghost asks.

"What are you?"

"I am the great Clawstone and I can grant any wish, all it takes is some blood to summon me," the ghost says.

"I see"

"So what is your wish?" the ghost asks.

"I don't know," I think for a second "o I know" I look at the ghost "I wish that all of this unclaimed land that is not Clans territory was mine"

"As you wish," the ghost says and then there was a flash of light and then it was gone "there you go all this land is yours if you ever need another wish rub some blood on the stone," the ghost says and fades away into the rock.

After that, I went back to my den that I made here and as I laid down I thought about what I would do with all this land of mine and then went to sleep.

The next morning I got woken up with voices and so I went outside and I saw 4 cats.

"What are you doing on my territory?" I ask and that made them gasp and look at me.

"We didn't know this land was claimed," the black cat says.

"We're just looking for a home," the gray cat says.

"Please let us stay here," the black one with red hair said.

"Why are you not with your Clans and what Clan are you from?"

"We're from WindClan and we're not there because they wanted to kick my brother out, but there was no way I was going to leave him," the black one says.

"Why did they want to kick you out?"

"Because I fell in love with the same gender," the gray one says.

"So you fell in love with a tom" he nods "who?"

"Me" the black one with red hair "we fell in love and they didn't like it"

"What are your names anyway?" I ask.

"Well mine is Blackfur," the black one says.

"My name is Graypaw," the gray one says.

"And my name is Blood," the black one with red hair said.

"And I'm Rika and mated to Blackfur," she says.

"And you're ok with males being together?"

"I don't mind at all," she looks at them "they love each other, love is love no matter what gender," Rika says.

"That's a good answer"

"Do you have a problem with it?" Blood asks.

"No actually, I was kicked out of my Clan because I liked the same gender as you guys"

"So you are like us," Graypaw says and I nod "then you understand"

"Yes" I then thought for a few seconds "you can stay here and live here if you help me"

"And what do you want?" Blood asks.

"Help me make a Clan for all cats that are like us"

"We can do that," they all said.

"Good"

"You never told us your name," Blackfur says.

"My name is Hawkfrost" they gasp "what?"

"Everybody knows about you," Rika says.

"What do you mean?" I ask being confused.

"All 4 Clans know what you did to Leopardstar weeks ago," Blood says.

"I did what I had too" I then jump down the rock I was on "she attacked me first and I was just defending myself and I could have killed her but I didn't" I sigh "if you want to leave then go I won't stop you"

I then saw them look at each other and then nods.

"We're staying," Graypaw says.

"Really?" I ask being surprised.

"Yes," Rika says.

"We will follow you," Blood says.

"Leader," Blackfur says.

They then bow their heads at me.

"Thank you" they then look at me "we will make a great Clan, but we need more members and so go rest because tomorrow we go search for other cats to join our FreeClan"

After that, they went to go get something to eat and I went to the rock and I made myself bleed and put my paw on the rock and the ghost appears.

"Back already," the ghost says.

"Yep"

"What is your wish?" the ghost asks.

"I wish I could see my love"

"As you wish" I then saw a puff of smoke and I saw Ashfur and he looked so sad.

"Don't worry I will come back for you my love"

After that, I went back to my den and went to sleep after I ate.

HAWKFROST POV

It has been 2 years already and I have made a huge Clan with tones of cats that were like us and we even welcomed cats that excepted us on who we were and I have become the leader and they all respect me and follow my commands and I made Blackfur my second in command and Blood my third in command.

And I told them about the Clawstone and how it works. O and we learned that if one person makes a wish and another person tries to undo the wish it will not work, it turns out that only way to undo the wish is to the person who made the wish, so in other words, if I make a wish and someone else tries to undo it, it won't work and I'm the only one that can undo it.

But anyway it has been busy being the leader of our FreeClan and by the way that's the name of our Clan.

But right now I was heading to the Clawstone and when I got there I made myself bleed and then put the blood on the rock and the ghost cat showed up.

"It's good to see you again" he then hovers around "it's been a while"

It's true it has been a while, it's been months since the last time I was here.

"So what's your wish?" Clawstone asks.

"I wish to see Ashfur"

"As you wish" I then saw a cloud show up and I saw Ashfur and he didn't look so good.

"What's wrong with him?" I ask with worry.

"He has given up hope that you will return for him liked you promised," Clawstone says.

"I will come for him" I then stand up "I'm going to go get him and bring him here and make him my mate"

"Good luck," Clawstone says and then goes back into the rock.

I then went back to the Clan and when I got there I went on the high rock and called a meeting.

"All cats old enough to catch your own pray come to the high rock for a Clan meeting," I said and all the cat looked at me and came to the rock.

"What's going on?" Blackfur asks as he sits next to me.

"You will see" I then look at the others "I have called this meeting to tell you all that I will be leaving and I will be gone for a few days" they then start talking to each other "but don't worry" they stop and look back at me "I will come back" I then stand up "until I return I'm leaving Blackfur in charge" I then look at Blackfur "take good care of the Clan"

"I will," Blackfur says.

After the meeting was over the Clan went to do their own thing and I went on my journey to find Ashfur.

time skip

It took me 3 days to get to ThunderClan territory and I know that I can't go into their dens and so I have to wait until I see him.

ASHFUR POV

I can't believe it's been 2 years already and I feel completely alone. The Clan has tried to cheer me up but I just feel like I should just die and end this pain.

But something keeps telling me to wait for him and I wish I had the guts to tell him how I feel.

But right now I was heading to our spot to where we always met. When I got there I sat and looked at the river and my tears began to fall.

"Why have you been gone so long?" I ask talking to myself. I then heard something "if your here to kill me just do it, I don't care anymore"

"Now why would I do that" I gasp and turn my head and I see that it's Hawkfrost "nothing is ever accomplished with tears," Hawkfrost says as he walks turd me.

I then turn away from him "what do you want?"

"I came for you like I said I would," Hawkfrost says as he sits next to me.

"You were gone 2 years" I then looked at him, "I thought you would be gone for a few weeks, not 2 years"

"I'm sorry I didn't come back sooner, but I was pretty far away from every Clan and then I decided to make a Clan of my own and that's why I was gone for so long" Hawkfrost says as he gets closer to me "you don't look so good Ashy, why is that?"

"I became depressed and I don't do anything these days, I don't even eat like I use too"

"Are you telling me you haven't eaten in 2 years?" Hawkfrost asks with worry.

"Yes I have been eating, but not as I use too"

"You need to start eating again and then we can leave," Hawkfrost says.

"What do you mean leave?"

"As in, come with me to my Clan and be my mate" I gasp "look I know I was gone for a long time, but I never stopped loving you" he then puts his tail around me "so what do you say?"

"I need time to think about this"

"I understand" he then stands up "I can't stay here for more than 3 days and so I'll give you 3 days" he sighs "if you don't come on the 3rd day that's how I'll know you're not coming, but if you do come then we'll leave together on the 3rd day" he then looks at me "I love you" he then licks my cheek and leaves.

What am I going to do?

[image]

ASHFUR POV

Today is the 3rd day and so I have to make a decision either go with Hawkfrost and leave the Clan or I stay here. I mean I love my Clan but I love him too, I don't know what to do and so I'm going to go see my sister Ferncloud.

When I get to her den I went in and I saw her and her mate talking and so I cleaned my throat and that made them look at me.

[image]

[image]

"Hey, brother what's up," Ferncloud says.

"Did I interrupted something?"

"No, we were just talking about who was going to go hunting tonight," Dustpelt says and I nod.

"So what's up?" Ferncloud asks.

"Can I talk to you in private for a minute?" I ask.

"Sure," Ferncloud says. After that, we left her den and went somewhere to talk. "so what is it?"

"Well the thing is I have fallen in love" she gasps with a smile.

"That's great Ashfur" I then look down "why don't you seem happy about it?" Ferncloud asks.

"That's the thing I wanted to talk to you about"

"And what's that?" Ferncloud asks.

"The cat I have fallen in love with is from another Clan"

"O," Ferncloud says. "and which Clan is it?"

I was about to say but then we heard noises from the Clan and so we headed back and when we got there we saw 3 wolves attacking the Clan and so Ferncloud and I ran to the other warriors and fought the wolves.

As we fought some of us kept the wolves busy as for some got the Females that couldn't fight and kits out of here and the Elders. And then I saw a wolf about to attack Tigerstar.

"TIGERSTAR" I yell as I ran to him and he looks at me "LOOK OUT" I then push him away and then I saw the wolf attack me and I scream in pain.

"ASHFUR" Tigerstar yells as he runs to the wolf and attacks it and that makes the wolf get away from me.

As I laid there with blood and scars on me I saw the battle before everything went black.

HAWKFROST POV

I was at our spot waiting to see if Ashfur will show up and I hope he does come.

I waited all day for him and it was night now and so I guess he's not coming.

I then felt a tear fall down my face "I guess you're not coming Ashfur" I then stand up and start walking away and then I turned my head "take care of yourself, my love"

After that, I left and headed back to my Clan.

ASHFUR POV

When I groan I heard a voice.

"Ashfur your finally awake" When I open my eyes I saw that all I could see was white "How do you feel?"

"Who's talking?" I ask.

"Ashfur it's me Jayfeather" Jayfeather says.

[image]

"Where," I said as I still laid down and turn my head.

"Over here" I then turn my head to the noise "Ashfur what do you see?" Jayfeather asks.

"Nothing but white"

"O no," Jayfeather says.

"What?"

"Ashfur can you not see me right now?" Jayfeather asks.

"I can't see a thing" I then start to panic "what's wrong with me?"

"Ashfur I don't know how to tell you this, but I think you're blind," Jayfeather says.

"What, no" I then start crying.

"I'm sorry Ashfur," Jayfeather says.

"How long was I out?" I ask as I kept crying.

"You were asleep for a week," Jayfeather says and that makes me gasp.

"What happened during the battle?"

"We won, but we did lose a few good warriors and some were badly hurt like you," Jayfeather says "so how do you feel?"

"I feel like my body is asleep and I'm a little sore"

"Well you have been asleep for a week and so that's normal since you didn't use your muscles in a long time," Jayfeather says.

After that, I fell asleep as Jayfeather checks my wounds.

HAWKFROST POV

When I got back to FreeClan I was greeted by the Clan and I was glad that they were happy to see me.

"Hawkfrost" I turn my head and I saw that it was Rika.

"What is it Rika?"

"How did your journey go?" Rika asks.

"Not very well" after I said that I left her and went to my den.

I stayed in my den for a while until I saw Blackfur come to my den.

"You ok?" Blackfur asks.

"Not really"

"What happened?" Blackfur asks.

I then look at him "I had feelings for someone and I asked him to meet me on the 3rd day, but he never showed up and so I guess he didn't feel the same"

"Him, you are in love with a tom," Blackfur says and I nod "I'm sorry to hear that"

"I just want to be alone for a while and so could you please leave"

"Of course," Blackfur says.

After that, he left and I was alone.

When it was night I went to sleep.

ASHFUR POV

When I wake up I heard voices talking.

"Whos there?"

"It's ok Ashfur it's me Tigerstar," Tigerstar says.

[image]

"O, ok"

"How do you feel?" Tigerstar asks.

"I feel a little better, but I wish I could see"

"Yes Jayfeather told me and I'm sorry for you losing your site and I wanted to thank you for saving me from that wolf," Tigerstar says.

"You're my leader and I had to do my best to protect the Clan and your welcome Tigerstar"

"I have also asked Jayfeather to help you with your blindness so that you can still live your life," Tigerstar says.

"How will he help me?"

"I will be helping you learn how to see without seeing," Jayfeather says.

[image]

"How can you see when you can't see, I don't understand?" I ask being confused.

"Well let me try to explain it a little better" he then got quiet for a second "it's like this since your blind your other senses will enhance and you will use your hearing and sense of smell and you can use those for your eyes, but in other words your hearing and sense of smell will be like your eyes" Jayfeather says.

"O, ok I understand now" I then sit up "when can we start?"

"In a few days, but for now you still need your rest" Tigerstar says.

"Ok"

time skip

Today is the day Jayfeather is going to help me and glad he is.

"You ready?" Jayfeather asks.

"Yes," I then stand up.

"Ok good" I then heard him move "follow my voice" I then started walking "no over here" I then turn around "no the other way" I then banged into something "you ok?" Jayfeather asks.

"Yeah, and what did I hit?"

"A wall, but that's ok this is your first try," Jayfeather says "now try again and follow my voice" I then started following him "good keep it up"

As I kept following his voice I could tell that I was getting good at this.

"Very good," Jayfeather says "ready for the next one?"

"Yes, what's the next one?"

"It is now time to test your smell, wait here" I then heard him leave me and so I waited for him and after a few minutes, I heard someone come back.

"Whos there?"

"It's just me Ashfur," Jayfeather says "and I brought someone to help you with your sense of smell"

"Who?"

"Squirrelflight," Jayfeather says and that makes me gasp. "look I know something happened to both of you, but you'll just have to get along" he then sighs "now Ashfur memories her sent and then she will run somewhere and you must find her"

[image]

"Of course she runs that's all she's good for," I said getting mad.

"Ashfur," Jayfeather says.

"No it's ok, I deserve that" she then sigh "Ashfur listen I am sorry that I rejected you but I didn't feel the same way as you did for me and I'm sorry that I didn't tell you that sooner" I then put my head down "we use to be friends before this happened and I really am sorry for hurting you like that" Squirrelflight says.

After that talk, she helped me with my sense of smell and I found her where ever she went and I did pretty well.

After that was all over I went back to the medicane den and went to sleep.

ASHFUR POV

It has been a month since the attack and I have gotten used to not seeing and I am fully recovered now and right now I was at the spot where I have been going to and hoping that he would return.

I mean I may not be able to see, but thanks the Jayfeather I can find anybody as long as I know their scent and I learned that I may be blind but you can see lines of different cats that left behind and that's what I'm doing right now. I'm trying to find Hawkfrost's scent so that I can go find him and explain to him on what happened.

I looked all day but when I finally found it I followed it and his scent was weak since it was old but I followed it.

HAWKFROST POV

I was at the Clawstone and just looking at it and then I bit my paw to make it bleed and then rubbed it on the rock and the ghost shows up.

"What is your wish?" Clawstone asks.

"I wanted to ask you something"

"Ok," Clawstone says.

"Can you make people do stuff?"

"If you're talking about asking about taking someone's free will I can not do that, you can't take away free will, sorry," Clawstone says.

"I see, ok, I wish to see Ashfur" he then nods and I see him start searching "what's wrong?"

"Your Ashfur is not at his Clan," Clawstone says.

"Then show me his Clan" I then saw it and it looked different "what happened to his Clan?"

"They were attacked by wolves," Clawstone says.

"Can you show me?"

"I'll need more blood to grant that wish," Clawstone says.

"Fine" I then rub more blood on the rock "I wish to see what happened to his Clan"

"As you wish," Clawstone says and then I saw it.

I saw the Clan get attacked by 3 wolves and I saw that they were fighting them as some got the females and kits and the Elders out of danger. And then I saw I Ashfur push a Dark brown tom away from that wolf and I see Ashfur getting attacked by that wolf and then I saw the tom attack the wolf off Ashfur and then I saw that Ashfur was badly hurt and then I see him pass out.

"O my god" I then rub more blood on the rock "I wish to know is Ashfur alive?"

"Yes," Clawstone says and I sigh in relief.

After that, he went back into the rock and I went back to join the Clan.

When I got there I saw cats talking about something.

"What's going on?" they all look at me.

"We have a visitor," Blackfur says.

"Who?"

"We don't know we found a tom passed out in our territory and right now he's in the medicine den resting," Blood says.

"Take me to him" they nod and I follow them to the den and when we got there I saw who it was and it was Ashfur "where did you found him?"

"In the forest passed out at the front of our territory," Blackfur says.

"How is he Graypaw?"

Yes that's right Graypaw became our medicine cat since he knew a lot about medicine and plus he asked to be and we agreed.

"He's dehydrated and he looks like he hasn't eaten in days and he seems very weak," Graypaw says.

"When he wakes up, come and find me"

"Yes, Hawkfrost," Graypaw says.

After that, I left and went to the high rock and watched my Clan.

ASHFUR POV

When I woke up I heard noises and movement.

"Where am I?"

"O you're awake," someone said.

"Where am I?" I ask again.

"You're safe and you're in my medicine den," he says.

"Who are you?"

"My name is Graypaw and I'm the medicine cat of this Clan," Graypaw says.

[image]

"What Clan am I in?"

"You're in FreeClan" Graypaw

"I've never heard of that Clan"

"That's because it's a secret Clan" I then heard someone coming in "hey brother"

"How is he?" the male asks.

"He just woke up," Graypaw says.

"How are you feeling?" he asks. "and who are you?"

"Who are you?"

"My name is Blackfur and is the Beta of this Clan, now who are you?" Blackfur asks.

[image]

"My name is Ashfur and I'm looking for someone"

"Brother stay with him and I will go get our leader Hawkfrost," Blackfur says.

I then gasp as he leaves.

I just love this picture

HAWKFROST POV

I was at the high rock when I saw Blackfur coming over here.

[image]

"He's awake," Blackfur says.

"Great" I then jumped down and head to the medicine den.

When I got there I saw Ashfur and Graypaw talking.

[image]

"I'm glad you 2 are getting along"

"Hello Hawkfrost," Graypaw says.

"How is he?"

"He just finished eating and he's ok," Graypaw says.

"I need to have a word with him alone"

"Of course," Graypaw says and then leaves.

After he was gone I looked at Ashfur.

"How did you find this place Ashfur?"

"I followed your scent," Ashfur says and I could feel that something was off.

"How were you able to that I haven't been there in months" I then saw him get sad "what's the matter?"

I then saw him cry "I lost my site and now I can't see" he then sighs "I'm blind Hawkfrost"

"I'm sorry to hear that Ashy" I then went to him and lick his cheek "so how did you get here?"

"Well like I said I followed your scent and our medicine cat taught me how to see things without seeing," Ashfur says.

"Interesting, why weren't you at the spot on the 3rd day and why did you come here?"

I know what happened to his Clan, but I want to hear it from him.

"I was going to come and see you on the 3rd day but wolves attacked us and I stayed to fight and we won but I lost my site in the process"

"So what were you going to say on that day?"

"I was going to come with you," Ashfur says.

"You were"

"Yes, and I wanted to tell you that I love you," Ashfur says.

I then went closer to him "I love you too" I then kissed him with passion "will you please become my mate?"

"I'd love too" we then kiss again.

"Are you ok to walk" he nods and we headed to my den and then I tackled him to the ground.

"What are you doing?" Ashfur ask while laying on his back.

"We're going to mate" I then kiss him again "I love you"

"I love you too," Ashfur says.

I then turn him around and slammed my dick right into him and that makes him scream and so I I put my paw over his mouth.

"Shhh, we don't need to draw attention," I said as I kept fucking him and he was moaning like crazy.

I fucked him good and long and when I finally knotted him I released my load into him.

"That was fantastic," I said breathing heavy "you are mine now"I then kiss him.

After that, we fell asleep with my knot still inside him.

the next morning

When the next morning came I got us some food and then we went to Clawstone.

"Where are we going Hawkfrost?" Ashfur asks.

"To a place to fix your site" When we got there I stopped "Ashfur I know you can't see right now, but we are at a place called the Clawstone and it has the power to grant wishes"

"So it can bring my site back?" Ashfur asks.

"I believe so" I then make myself bleed and rub it on the rock and the ghost came out.

"I see you found him," Clawstone says.

"Yes I did"

"So what is your wish?" Clawstone asks.

"Go ahead Ashfur and tell him what you want"

"Ok, I would like to have my site back" I then saw nothing happened "I still can't see"

"You need to put the word wish in it for me to grant it," Clawstone says.

"Ok, I wish to have my site back please?" Ashfur asks.

"As you wish" Clawstone say and then he glows and then it was gone "there your wish has been granted"

"But I still can't see," Ashfur says.

"That is because you won't get your site back until tomorrow morning," Clawstone says.

"Thank you," Ashfur says.

"My pleasure" I then saw him go back into the rock.

After that, we went back to my den and we mated again until we went to sleep.

ASHFUR POV

When I wake up I could see and I saw that I was in a den and alone and then I stand up and walk out and saw a lot of cats doing their own thing.

"There's my love" I then turn my head and see that it's Hawkfrost "how are you feeling?"

[image]

"I still feel a little sore from all the mating we have had and that wished worked I can see"

"I'm happy for you Ashy," Hawkfrost says and then licks my cheek "I'm sorry I was so rough with our mating, I don't like easy, I like rough"

"I understand, but next time be a little easier"

He then gets closer "I'll try" he then kisses me "I'm glad your here"

"Me too" my stomach then growls.

"I guess your hungry hu," Hawkfrost says and I nod "I'll go get you something, you just go rest a little bit more"

"Ok" he then smiles and kisses me again and leaves and I go back into the den.

After a few minutes, Hawkfrost returns with some pray and I eat and he sits and watches me while his tail moves back and forth.

"So how does it feel to be a leader of a Clan?" I ask while I ate.

"It can be hard sometimes, but most of the time it's pretty easy,"

Hawkfrost says.

"Has there been any trouble here?"

"Nope, it's peaceful here and there are no fights, except for training," Hawkfrost says.

"And what about the pray here?"

"There's enough pray for generations to have," Hawkfrost says.

"Wow" he then gets closer to me and wraps his tail around "you seem to like being close don't you"

He then chuckles "well after not seeing you for a long time, I don't think I'll ever let you leave my side" he then rubs his body on my mine "and besides, we have stuff to do"

"And what's that?"

"You having my kits," Hawkfrost says.

I then chuckle "Hawkfrost have you forgotten that I'm a male and I can't get pregnant"

"Not yet, but you will," Hawkfrost says.

"What do you mean?" I ask.

"Remember the Clawstone I told you about?" I nod "that Clawstone can grant any wish and if you want, you can ask it to make you able to get pregnant"

I then gasp "so all I have to do is wish it and it will grant it"

"Yep," Hawkfrost says.

"I see"

"What is it Ashy?" Hawkfrost asks.

"I do understand, but I'm not ready for that step yet"

"And that's fine" I then look at him "I'm not going to force you to do something your not ready for and besides we have plenty of time to have kits together," Hawkfrost says.

"So your not mad?"

"Of course not," Hawkfrost says.

"Thanks, I'm glad you're not"

"How about I take you around the Clan and show you around," Hawkfrost says.

"I'd like that"

We then left the den and he showed me around and I met a lot of different cats and some had kits and I saw a lot of cats that was mated with the same gender. I saw males with males and females with females and males with females.

I also saw how they were not treating anyone mean, they were all treating them with kindness and friendliness.

"Your Clan is so nice"

"It sure is, all the cats here left their Clans to get away from the haters and do you see those 4 right there?" Hawkfrost asks as he points.

"Yes I see them, why do you ask?"

"Those 4 are the first ones I met and we made this Clan together," Hawkfrost says "the black one is Blackfur and he's my Beta and the female next to him is Rika and they are mates and the black one with red in it is Blood and the gray one next to him is Grawpaw and they are mates" Hawkfrost says.

TIGERSTAR POV

It has been a month and there has not been any sign of Ashfur and so I gathered a search team and they are Squirrelflight, Jayfeather, and Ashfur's sister Ferncloud, and me.

[image]

[image]

[image]

[image]

We left 3 days ago and I bet you're wondering why bring Jayfeather with us? Well, that is because he can find any cat's scent even if it has been a year and that's why we brought him.

And we brought Ferncloud because she wanted to find her brother and she is good at tracking.

Squirrelflight volunteer and we excepted her help.

And I came because Ashfur is my friend and he saved my life and I had to make sure he was ok.

"Anything Jayfeather?" Ferncloud asks.

"His trail leads this way," Jayfeather says as he walks.

We follow him for hours and then he stops.

"Why did you stop?"

"Someone is here," Jayfeather says.

"How can you tell?" Squirrelflight asks as she looks around.

"Their scent I don't recognize it" Jayfeather then closes his eyes for a few seconds "Tigerstar duck"

I then duck and I saw a she-cat miss me.

[image]

"Who are you and how dare you step on our territory," she says.

"We're looking for someone," I said.

"And who would that be?" she asks.

"My brother," Ferncloud says and then the she-cat look at her and gasps "what?"

"You look just like him," she says. she then looks at Ferncloud "it really is uncanny on how much you look like him"

"Who are you talking about?" Ferncloud asks.

"Our leader's mate," she says.

"Can you take us to your leader, maybe your leader can help us find him?" I said.

"Follow me," she says and then walks away.

We then follow her.

"Why didn't we tell her his name?" Squirrelflight asks.

"Because we don't know if we can trust these cats and so be on guard"

After a few minutes, we came to some dens and we saw a lot of cats here and as we walked we came to a big rock and then I saw a tom on top of the rock.

[image]

"Who are these cats Rika?" he asks.

"I found them on our territory and they're looking for someone," Rika says.

He then gasps as he looks at Ferncloud "you look just like my mate" he says.

"I said the same thing," Rika says.

"Who is your mate?" Ferncloud asks.

"And what Clan is this?" Squirrelflight asks.

"And who are you?" I ask.

"First of all you should tell me who you are first," he says.

"My name is Tigerstar and I'm the leader of ThunderClan and this is Jayfeather, Ferncloud, and Squirrelflight"

"So your Tigerstar, my mate talks about you a lot," he says "and my name is Hawkfrost and I'm the leader of this clan and our Clan is called FreeClan"

"I've never heard of a Clan like that," I said.

"That is because our Clan is a secret," Hawkfrost says "now who are you looking for?"

"My brother," Ferncloud says.

"And who's your brother?" Hawkfrost asks.

She was going to talk but got cut off.

"Hawkfrost" we turn our heads and gasps.

"Love your suppose to be resting," Hawkfrost says as we saw Ashfur go on the rock.

"I was until our kits were kicking me," Ashfur says.

"Aww, sorry love, but we also have company," Hawkfrost says as he points to us. Ashfur then looks at us and gasps.

"O my God" he then jumps off the rock and comes to us "I can't believe your here"

"We came looking for you when you never came back to the Clan," Ferncloud says.

"I have a reason for that" Ashfur says.

"And that is?" I ask.

"Ferncloud remember when I told you I fell in love" she nods "the cat I fell in love with is him," Ashfur says as he points to Hawkfrost.

"But Ashfur a tom and tom can't be mates" Squirrelflight says.

"Why don't you look around and say that again," Hawkfrost says.

We then look at all the cats and we saw males with males and females with females and some with male and female.

"What kind of Clan is this?" I ask.

"This Clan is called FreeClan because here you can be free with no judgments and you can have the same gender as a mate and everybody from here is from somewhere that treated them terrible for who they are and so FreeClan was born," Hawkfrost says.

"So no judges here for who you are no matter what?" Ferncloud asks.

"Yes, but we can't stand cats that hate us for who we are," Hawkfrost says.

"Wow," Ferncloud says "wait a minute a few minutes ago you said your kits were kicking?"

"Yes, I did say that," Ashfur says.

"Are you pregnant?" I ask.

"Yes," Ashfur says.

"How is that possible" Squirrelflight says being surprised.

"We don't know, but I'm glad I am because that means Hawkfrost and I can have kits," Ashfur says.

"Ashfur I want to ask you something?" Ferncloud asks.

"Ok," Ashfur says.

"Are you happy here?" Ferncloud asks.

"Yes, very much," Ashfur says.

"Well then I wish you the best," Ferncloud says.

"Thank you," Ashfur says.

"And I respect your decision Ashfur"

"Well since your staying, we should get going," Squirrelflight says.

"I'm happy for you Ashfur" Jayfeather says.

"Let's go," I said and we started leaving.

"Wait," Hawkfrost says and we turn our heads "it's getting late and I think you should stay here for the night" he then jumps down from the rock "there are plenty of dens for yall to stay in and there is enough prey to eat"

"Are you sure?" I ask.

"Yes," Hawkfrost says.

"Thank you," we said and he nods.

"1 more thing though," Hawkfrost says.

"Yes," we said.

"Do not and I repeat DO NOT tell anybody about this Clan because a lot of haters will try to get rid of us and kill us," Hawkfrost says.

"Of course, we will keep this a secret between the 4 of us"

"Thank you," Hawkfrost says and we nod.

After that, we got some prey and then we went into one of the empty dens and went to sleep.

ASHFUR POV

I was in the den laying down resting and I was expecting kits.

I bet your wondering on how this happened? Well, the thing is at first I wasn't ready until I had a talk with my friend and Hawkfrost and after that, it changed my mind and I was ready.

FLASHBACK

I was walking around the Clan and watching all the cats doing their own thing and I saw kits playing with each other and everybody was just so happy.

I then went to see my friend Rika and when I found her I saw her laying down while feeding her kits and they're names are Shadowheart and Nightshade and Roseheart. The male is Shadowheart and the females are Nightshade and Roseheart.

[image]

[image]

"Hey, Rika" she looks at me.

"O hey Ashfur," Rika says.

"How are you doing with the little ones?" I ask.

"I'm fine and they're fine too, their just feeding right now," Rika says.

"Can I ask you something?" she nods "how does it feel?"

"What?" Rika asks.

"Being pregnant and having kits"

"O" she nods "it can be a pain sometimes when they kick you while they're inside you, but once they're born there are no words on how you feel when you see them for the first time"

"I see"

"Why do you ask?" Rika asks.

"Well I know that Hawkfrost wants a family, but I'm too scared to try that next step"

"Have you tried telling him that?" Rika asks.

"No, because he'll think low of me and I don't want that, I don't need another rejection"

"Now I know he would never do that, he loves you and besides yall have already mated that means he's yours and you are his," Rika says.

I then smile a little "thanks"

"Any time Ashfur," Rika says.

After that, I left her and went to Hawkfrost and sat on the rock with him.

[image]

"There's my love," Hawkfrost says and then licks my cheek.

"Hey" I lick his cheek "can we talk?"

"Sure love," Hawkfrost says.

"In privet"

"Of course," Hawkfrost says.

We then left the rock and went to the den.

"So what is it Ashy?" Hawkfrost asks.

"I need to tell you something"

"And what is it?" Hawkfrost asks.

"I'm scared"

"Of what?" Hawkfrost asks.

I take a deep breath "you know how you want a family?" he nods "well the thing is I'm scared to take that next step" I then look down and he gasps "please don't think low of me" he then puts his paw below my chin and raises my head and I look at him.

"Ashy I would never think low of you, I love you silly" he then kisses me "if you're not ready to have kits then that's fine, we have plenty of time" he then kisses me with passion "and besides that gives us time to practice," he says with a chuckle.

"Well then" I then look at him "bring it on"

He smirks "I love you" he then kisses me.

Soon we started mating and this went on for hours.

next morning

When I wake I saw that Hawkfrost was still asleep and so I got up and went outside and headed to the Clawstone.

When I got there I cut myself and rub the blood on the rock and he showed up.

"Hello Ashfur it's been a while," Clawstone says.

"Yeah sorry about that"

"It's fine, so what do you wish?" Clawstone asks.

"I wish I had the ability to get pregnant by Hawkfrost"

"Very well" I then saw a puff of smoke show up and gather around and then it was gone "your wish has been granted," Clawstone says.

"Thank you"

"Your welcome," he says and then goes into the rock.

I then headed back to the Clan. When I got there I went into the den and I saw that Hawkfrost was still asleep and so I lick him and that makes him groan and opens his eyes.

"Hey love," Hawkfrost says in a sleepy voice.

"Hey" I then lay next to him and we look at each other "we sure had fun last night didn't we?"

He chuckles "yeah we did" he then got closer "we could go again?" I laugh a little.

"You sure your not to tired from all that last night?"

He then kisses me "I'm never too tired to make love to my mate"

After that, we were at it again.

END FLASHBACK

After that night we made love a lot and since I didn't tell Hawkfrost about that wish I kept doing things that would make him a horny male and I did that a lot until one day I was feeling funny and we went to see Graypaw and he told us I was pregnant.

When Hawkfrost heard the news he fainted and when he woke up he asked what happened and we told him and he fainted again. After the third time, he finally got it and he was excited about this.

That was months ago and now I'm close to giving birth in a few weeks. And I can't wait to meet our kits.

= = = =

[image]

HAWKFROST POV

I was outside on the big rock looking at my Clan and it was a nice day. And my love was in the den resting after our lovemaking last night and I'm still waiting for him to give birth and that's what he's doing right now. Graypaw is with him right now waiting until its time to push.

I want to be with him, but Ashfur needs to focus and listen to Graypaw instructions.

"You doing ok?" I then look down and see that it's Rika.

[image]

"Yeah, I'm fine why?"

She then jumps on top of the rock and sits next to me "well every time your not your tail moves like clockwork and that's happening right now" I then look at my tail and stop moving it "so what's the matter?" Rika asks.

I sigh "I'm just worried about Ashfur and my kits and since I can't be in there with him as he gives birth and that makes me worry more"

"I'm sure he's fine and Graypaw knows what he's doing, after all, he helped me give birth to my kits," Rika says.

"Your right I need to stay calm"

"And think how cute your kits are going to be," Rika says.

"Right"

After that, she left and I was alone and then I heard screaming and that made me stand up and I saw Blackfur run this way.

[image]

"What's going on Blackfur?" I ask.

"We got foxes coming this way," Blackfur says.

"Get every cat that can fight ready"

"Yes sir," Blackfur says and then runs away.

I then go to the den.

[image]

"Hawkfrost you can't be in here right now," Graypaw says.

"YOU DON'T TELL ME WHAT TO DO" he flinches "I came in here because we have a problem"

"What is it?" Graypaw asks.

"Foxes are attacking the Clan" he gasps "you stay in here and protect him and I'll have 2 other cats outside for yall's protection, understood"

"Yes Hawkfrost," Graypaw says.

I then go to Ashfur as he looked at me as he was breathing heavily.

"I have to go fight my love"

"I know, but promise me something before you go," Ashfur says.

"Anything for you," I said as I got closer to him.

"Promise me that you'll come back to me when this is over," Ashfur asks.

I then kiss him "I promise"

He smiles "I love you," Ashfur says.

"I love you too" I then kiss him with passion "I have to go"

"I know," Ashfur says.

After that, I left them and I put 2 warrior cats to guard them while I joined the Clan to fight.

Just then the foxes show up and we got ready to fight.

"ATTACK" I yell and we attack the foxes.

As we fought the foxes I saw one of them getting close to where cats would stay that can't fight.

"Blood" he looks at me "get to that fox over there it's getting to close to the cats that can't fight"

[image]

"I'm on it," Blood says and then runs to the fox and attacks it.

We fought for hours but we won.

"Blackfur"

"Yes Hawkfrost," Blackfur says.

"I want a headcount on whos injured and how many we have lost"

"Yes sir," Blackfur says. After a few minutes, he came back.

"Report"

"We have 12 injured and we lost 5 good warriors sir," Blackfur says.

"Dam it, alright gather the wounded and take them to the medicine den and rest of us will bury our fallen warriors"

"Yes sir," Blackfur says.

After that, he left and he and some other cats took the wounded back to the Clan.

We then dig a hole for each fallen warrior and then bury them.

We then return to the Clan and I saw a lot of worry and sad looks from a lot of cats. I then go on top of the high rock.

"Every cat please listen" they look at me "as you know we fought foxes and as I look at all of you I would like to say I am very proud of all of you for fighting for this Clan and to honor our fallen warriors that fought to protect this Clan, let us all pray that they are in StarClan watching over us"

After that moment was over I went to the den and I saw Ashfur laying there with 4 kits drinking his milk.

"Hey love" he looks at me "their beautiful" I then sat next to him "did you give them names yet?"

"I did, I hope you don't mind," Ashfur says.

"I'm ok with it and besides I was fighting and I wasn't there, but if we have more kits I get to name the next ones"

He chuckles "deal" he then looks at them "want to know their names?" Ashfur asks.

"Yes"

"Well this one," Ashfur says while using his tail to point "this brown one with gray spots is a male and I named him Grayspot" his tail then points to the next one "this black and grayish one is a girl and I named her Iceshadow" then the next one "this dark gray and lite gray one is a male and I named him Darksky and the last one is a male as well and he has dark gray fur with brown in it and I named him Dustclaw" he then looks at me "what do you think?"

[image]

"I think that's perfect"

After that, I laid with him as my tail was around him and the kits as we fell asleep.

Epilogue

[image]

Rika and Blackfur overtime ended up having 3 litters and now they have 7 kits. On the first litter, they had 3 kits and the second litter they had 2 kits and the 3rd litter they had 2 again.

Blood and Graypaw also had some kits and they had 2 litters, the first litter that they had was 4 kits and the second litter they had 3 kits.

And a lot of the other cats also had kits over time and now my Clan is really big and that means we'll be protected more if anyone attacks us.

Over the years we did get visitors from my love's Clan and they would come and bring cats that were like us and we welcomed them into the Clan and that's another reason why our Clan is big.

"Papa" I look at Dustclaw.

"What is it?"

"It's dad" I jump down and run to him.

"What's wrong, Ashfur?"

He looks at me "it's time" Ashfur says.

"Ok" I look at my kits "Darksky, Grayspot you 2 help me bring Ashfur to the den" they nod "and you 2 Dustclaw, Iceshadow go get the medicine cat and tell him to hurry"

"Yes papa," they all said.

We took Ashfurtoo the den while the other 2 went to get the medicine cat.

After a few minutes, he showed up and got to work and we left him to his job.

After a few hours, he came out.

"How is he?"

"He's doing just fine" I sigh in relief "he's tired but he's fine and he's waiting for you," Graypaw says.

After he left I went in and my kits waited outside.

I then saw him laying down as he sees me.

"Hey, Hawkfrost," Ashfur says.

"Hey love" I sit next to him and look at our new kits and I saw that there was 5 of them "their beautiful"

"Yes they are," Ashfur says "now we need to name them"

"I know"

We then talked about the names and when we did I got our older kits and they got to meet their younger siblings.

After a while, they left and that left me and Ashfur and our new kits alone and we lay down and look at each as we begin to close our eyes.

"I love you Hawkfrost," Ashfur says.

I smile and kiss him "I love you too Ashfur"

After that, we fell asleep with my tail around him and new kits.
